If you are eligible, you will receive automatic Death and TPD insurance cover on joining Bank First Superannuation, subject to being able to answer 'No' to the following questions asked by the Insurer, TAL Life Limited (ABN 70 050 109 450, AFSL 237848) (Insurer), unless you opt-out. For information about eligibility, please read the Insurance Factsheet.

If you wish to take out cover before you are First Eligible, you may need to provide satisfactory evidence of your good health and other information including an Election to take out and maintain cover. Please contact us on 1300 654 193 and we will send you the relevant information and requirements so that you can apply for insurance cover.

5.1 Opting out of insurance

- I wish to opt-out of receiving automatic Death and TPD insurance cover on joining Bank First Superannuation.*

*If you are eligible but choose to opt-out of receiving automatic Death and TPD insurance cover, you will not be able to have your cover automatically reinstated at a later date. You may be eligible to apply to the Insurer for new cover. This will require you to meet the Insurer's underwriting requirements, which might include providing evidence of good health.

5.2 Insurance Eligibility

If you have not opted out of insurance cover, please complete the following information request. It is important to provide this information as your cover type, amount and premiums will depend on your occupation, age, sex and smoking status. Please refer to the Insurance Factsheet for more information.

If you are under 25 years of age and/or you have under $6,000 in your super account, and you would like to elect to take out default Death and TPD insurance cover, you will also be required to complete the risk-control questions in section 5.5 and make a PMIF Election in section 5.6 on the following page.

5.3 Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a life insurance contract, you have a duty to tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect their decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you.

You have the same duty before you extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk they insure you for
- is common knowledge
- they know or should know as an insurer
- they waive your duty to tell them about.

If you do not tell the insurer something

In exercising the following rights, the insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If they do, they may apply the following rights separately to each type of cover.

If you do not tell the insurer anything you are required to, and they would not have insured you if you had told them, they may avoid the contract within three years of entering into it.

If the insurer chooses not to avoid the contract, they may, at any time, reduce the amount you have been insured for. This would be worked out using a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had told them everything you should have. However, if the contract has a surrender value, or provides cover on death, the insurer may only exercise this right within three years of entering into the contract.

If the insurer chooses not to avoid the contract or reduce the amount you have been insured for, they may, at any time vary the contract in a way that places them in the same position they would have been in if you had told them everything you should have. However, this right does not apply if the contract has a surrender value or provides cover on death.

If your failure to tell the insurer is fraudulent, they may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

If you have applied for cover via a financial adviser it is also your responsibility to ensure that the information provided to your adviser is accurate and complete and that the correct information is entered into the application form.

5.4 Occupation

What is your occupation*?

*It is important to provide your occupation as your cover type, amount and premiums will depend on your occupation, age, sex and smoking status. Please refer to the Insurance fact sheet for further information.

- Y  N 1. Are you a smoker?
- Y  N 2. Are you, due to sickness, accident or injury, currently unable to perform your full and normal duties on a full-time basis (for at least 30 hours per week) even though your actual employment may be full-time, part-time, casual, unemployed or domestic duties?
- Y  N 3. Have you been diagnosed with or do you suffer from, an illness that reduces your life expectancy to less than 12 months or may cause a Terminal Illness or permanent inability to work?
- Y  N 4. Have you had an application for life or disability insurance cover declined, or been offered cover on alternate terms?
- Y  N 5. Have you ever made, or are you entitled to make, a claim or any Injury or Illness through Workers' Compensation, sickness benefit, invalid pension or any insurance policy providing total & permanent disablement, accident or sickness cover?
- Y  N 6. Are you engaged in a hazardous occupation (refer to the Insurance Factsheet for further information)?

Note: Cover only commences upon the Insurer's acceptance of your eligibility and this duly completed application. Generally, applicants who smoke are likely to pay higher insurance premiums.

You have a duty to disclose all information relevant to the Insurer's decision to accept your application as outlined in the Insurance Factsheet. Failure to do so may lead to the Insurer declining your automatic insurance application. If your application for automatic insurance is declined you may be eligible to apply to the Insurer for new cover. This will require you to meet the Insurer's underwriting requirements, which might include providing evidence of good health.
